

PRESS RELEASE

McKay Appoints Property Director

McKay Securities PLC, the only Real Estate Investment Trust (REIT) specialising entirely in the South East and London office and industrial markets, has appointed Tom Elliott as Property Director with effect from early September 2016.

Tom, aged 41, joins McKay from Land Securities Group PLC where, after 11 years, he is currently Head of Investment, London. This has given him extensive experience with a leading REIT in investment strategy and transactions, asset management and development. Prior to this, he qualified as a Chartered Surveyor with Knight Frank.

In his new role, Tom will be based at the Company's Head Office in Reading and will be involved in a broad management role, contributing to the long term strategy of the business. He will take on day to day responsibility for the investment portfolio and the well-established asset management team, reporting to Simon Perkins, Chief Executive.

Simon Perkins, Chief Executive of McKay, commented:

"I am delighted to welcome Tom to McKay. He has established an excellent track record. His wide range of experience leaves him well placed to contribute to the release of the considerable potential within our existing portfolio and to the continued growth of the Group."

Date: 21st July 2016
